

Mountain Health Choices Inquiry Form

Direct Action Welfare Group (DAWG) is gathering information from families in West Virginia about the recent changes to Medicaid, known as Mountain Health Choices. If you or your family receives Medicaid or has been impacted by the changes to Medicaid, known as Mountain Health Choices, please fill out this form and return it to the address below.

Thank You!

1. Do you or your child (ren) get a Medicaid card (medical card)? Yes No
2. Did you get a letter or packet of information from Mountain Health Choices?
 Yes No Not sure
3. Are you now in Basic Yes No Enhanced Yes No Not sure
4. Is you child(ren) in Basic Yes No Enhanced Yes No Not sure
*To locate the information look on your Medical Card under PLAN.
BC or BA means you have the Basic Plan. EA or EC means you have the Enhanced Plan.*
5. Did you get a letter informing you that your Medicaid benefits had changed?
 Yes No Not sure
6. Could we contact you for more information about Medicaid? Yes No

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ Zip Code: _____ County: _____

Phone: _____ E-Mail: _____@_____

Please return this form to

Direct Action Welfare Group
PO Box 20079
Charleston, WV 25362

Direct Action Welfare Group, better known as DAWG, is a grassroots advocacy organization that focuses on welfare and poverty issues. DAWG is made up of low income working families and people who receive or have received public assistance including Medicaid.

For more information visit us on the web at www.wvdawg.org or contact us at 539-3157 or info@wvdawg.org